IRISH DEATH DANCE.

POLICE SURPRISE ARMED CIVILIANS.

SIX PERSONS KILLED.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO BURN "FREEMAN'S JOURNAL" OFFICE.

LONDON, December 27.

A dance in which armed civilians were participating was surprised at Bruff in Limerick within the martial law area this morning. The approaching forces were fired on by the dancers and a policeman was killed. The fire was returned, five dancers being killed. The civilian sentries at the dancing hall were overpowered and 138 were arrested and taken to Limerick.

Christmas was generally quiet in Dublin. The activity of the police and military was confined on Xmas Eve to clearing the streets of roysters who ignored the curfew order. There was considerable shooting in the streets. Several persons were slightly wounded, including a soldier. The most serious incident was another attempt to burn the offices of the Freeman's Journal by three men in a motor car who sprinkled the premises with petrol. The flames, however, were extinguished by the fire brigade with the greatest promptitude.

NEWSPAPER OFFICE WRECKED.

LONDON, December 27.

Thirty armed masked men entered the offices of the Cork Examiner on Christmas Eve, smashed the machinery, and wrecked parts of the buildings with explosives.

The Hibernian Bank at Drogheda was burgled and £36,000 stolen.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

FRANCE'S PROMINENT PART AT THE ASSEMBLY.

A STRIKING TRIBUTE.

PARIS, December 25.

A Havas message states:—Before the parliamentary committee of foreign affairs, the former Premier, M. Viviani, gave an account of his mission to the Assembly of the League of Nations, laying stress on the striking tribute of respect and admiration paid to France by the other nations throughout the conference and the prominent part played by M. Leon Bourgeois, the head of the French delegation, whose learning and prudence were recognized and honoured by all. M. Viviani stated that France had everybody's support respecting her claims for compensation from Germany the attitude of Britain, Spain, and the South American republics being especially friendly. M. Viviani expressed the opinion that an entente of the three great democracies, Britain, France, and the United States was essential to peace. He concluded by stating that he will do his utmost towards achieving that end.

FRENCH TRADE CRISIS.

LABOUR MINISTER MEETS BUILDING TRADE REPRESENTATIVES.

DEAR COAL CAUSES HIGH PRICES.

PARIS, December 25.

A Havas message states:—M. Jourdain, the Minister of Labour, is actively engaged in looking for practical means of settling, or at least alleviating, the present trade crisis. M. Jourdain yesterday personally attended a meeting he had arranged for representatives of the building trade and allied industries. Every representative had an opportunity of discussing his views with the Minister and making suggestions. The representatives expressed the opinion that coal prices were still the chief cause of the present abnormal prices of building material, such as fire, cement, and bricks, yet upon the Minister's request they agreed to the lowering at once of prices as much as possible. The representatives also laid stress upon the scarcity of skilled labour and asked the Minister to open special shops for the training of foremen where discharged soldiers would be admitted by preference.

D'ANNUNZIO ATTACKED.

ITALIAN REGULARS OCCUPY OUTSKIRTS OF FIUME.

MANY CASUALTIES.

ROME, December 27.

D'Annunzio's defiance of the Italian Government has resulted in an outbreak of hostilities involving a considerable number of casualties.
The Government's proclamation of blockade was answered on December 22 by a note from D'Annunzio's Foreign Secretary declaring a state of war. Simultaneously, D'Annunzio's legionaries disembarked in the vicinity of Zara where a carabinieri was killed and several wounded in the course of a skirmish. Thereupon a general advance of the Italian regulars was ordered. They crossed the frontier of the Quarnero Regency and halted on December 25 in the hope that the legionaries who had retreated inside the city would come to their senses but were received with artillery and machine gun fire which killed and wounded thirty men. Thereupon the regulars on the morning of December 26 occupied the outskirts of Fiume, accomplishing in the words of the official communique "a painful duty with loyalty and discipline."

REVOLT AGAINST D'ANNUNZIO SUPPRESSED.

Meanwhile the efforts of D'Annunzio to debauch the fleet had failed.
A party boarded the cruiser "Marala" at Zara and instead of being received with open arms were captured and handed over to the authorities at Ancona. A part of the population at Fiume rose against D'Annunzio but the revolt was suppressed with bloodshed. Aeroplanes on December 27 dropped leaflets at Fiume urging a cessation of fratricidal strife. A telegram from Zara states that the legionaries at San Marco are maintaining constant machine gun and rifle fire on the Slav coastal population.

ROME, December 27.

A message from Trieste states that in consequence of the threatening attitude of the leaders at Fiume General Cavaglia on December 22 ordered the occupation of the advanced posts around Fiume which was carried out on December 25 after fighting in which the Italians lost five killed and 30 wounded.

MR. H. WYATT.

SHANGHAI PRESENTATION.

CUSTOMS MEN'S RECOGNITION OF HIS WORK.

A presentation was made to Mr. H.
Wyatt, late Chief Examiner, Chinese Maritime Customs at Shanghai, recently by a number of his friends in Service.

The function took place at a dinner,
when an illuminated address hand-somerly bound in morocco leather with a gold monogram and signed by a representative number of his late colleagues was handed to him.
The address was as follows:—

TO HAROLD WYATT, ESQUIRE.

"We, the undersigned members of the Customs Outdoor Staff, request the acceptance of this token of our high esteem and gratitude for the invaluable and unselfish efforts you have made on our behalf.

"Although you are no longer connected with the Service, yet we can assure you that the good work you have done for us—your brother Officers will always remain fresh in our memory."

With the address was also presented, in an engraved silver card-case, a cheque running into, it is stated, nearly five figures, representing tokens of esteem from all parts of China and as some recompense
for the 17 years' service sacrificed
by his unselfish efforts to ameliorate
the conditions of the Outdoor Staff.—

SHANGHAI SITUATION.

SOME PRESENT VIEWS.

The present precarious business situation, with its prospects of serious
developments between now and Chinese New Year, is giving rise not only to the inevitable crop of rumours but even more to anxious inquiry regarding the position of firms, both foreign and Chinese, says
the N. C. Daily News, of December 23rd.
Insolvency among several Chinese dealers has already been announced, but it is quite impossible to say how acute the position is where foreign firms are concerned. Up to the present fact has not followed upon the heels of rumour, and almost the only tangible point that seems to emerge is that recently the larger firms have been bombarded with applications for situations from the more junior employees of some of the smaller and newer concerns. This in itself is a fair indication of how things are going,
but it is impossible yet to say whether this is a result of retrenchment only or of business.

While foreign firms are giving assistance to their regular dealers so far as storage charges, interest, etc., are concerned, the banks, both foreign and Chinese, are likewise helping matters where such help is justified. At times like the present the banks have always backed up the foreign houses carrying on business judiciously, and in 1910, for instance, it was found possible with the assistance for merchants to hold stocks until the market had recovered. As a result of this assistance many of the foreign firms passed the crisis without loss. It is interesting to find the view still expressed that with the same financial assistance this year, plus the winding out of a number of firms, we may look for a distinct recovery after Chinese
New Year.

THE RESORT TO LAW.

In the meantime foreign circles are showing a certain amount of perturbation over the circumstance that some of the more men in the trade are showing the inclination to resort to the Mixed Court in the hope of obtaining something out of their Chinese clients.
Among those familiar with business conditions in China this procedure is strongly deprecated, as tending to make the situation worse than it already is,
while any sum likely to be recovered
through this means would be so small as to make the action contemplated not worth while. Expression is given strongly to the view that only by avoiding recourse to the law will it be possible to hope to obtain any money from these people. It may be taken that the majority have little or no money at present.

In the way of giving assistance to their dealers it is reported that some firms are making quite considerable sacrifices of the profits they have made on exchange. In some cases, for instance, the foreign importer may, for instance, exchange his goods for the dealer's stock,
and when the cargo comes to be taken up exchange has dropped to 4/1.
In normal times this profit would be taken by the foreign firm, the Chinese having lost in his gamble on exchange, and there is no reason why it should not be so. To-day, however, we find that certain foreign firms are virtually making a present of this difference to their dealers. This, in principle, it must be pointed out, is different to making a direct cut to enable dealers to carry on,
which has been done in many instances
The point to be considered is that while everybody is at a time like this is needed by dealers, a bad precedent may be created in connexion with exchange,
and the recipient may in future transactions suggest that this is his right.

ELECTRICAL APPARATUS FOR EVERY PURPOSE

This trade mark is

Doing the World's Work

Though the source of power may be miles from the work to be done, the electric motor makes possible its direct application to the task.

Westinghouse Motors do this economically and well, for they are designed to fit exactly their particular task and are built to meet the highest standards of quality and service.
Thus Westinghouse Motors are to be found in thousands of different applications.

They operate power machines in the workshop;
They handle the heaviest freight traffic in the world;
They drive the most powerful passenger locomotives;
They haul coal and ore from the earth's interior;
They drive the propellers of merchant vessels and warships;
They turn the wheels of thousands of street cars;
They operate lathes, presses, shears, tools, printing presses, elevators, and thousands of other machines—doing their work so well that progressive concerns have "cast aside millions of dollars' worth of former equipment in order to install them."

They grind coffee for the grocer, chop meat for the butcher, sweep, wash, iron and sew for the housewife.
When the motor bears the trade mark Westinghouse Electric
there is no question of its giving satisfactory service.

MANCHESTER MARKET.

WEEKLY REPORT.

Messrs. James F. Hutton & Co., Ltd., Manchester, manufacturers and exporters of all kinds of piece goods
to India, China, &c., report on Nov.
17:

The outstanding feature of the cotton markets has again been the entire absence of support and in spite of the fact that the present price of cotton is declared to be so much below the actual cost of producing a steady depreciation of values continues. The weight of material coming into sight
appears to be too heavy for the market
to carry under present conditions, and it is not easy to see where the downward movement will be checked
so long as these last Egyptian specimens have dropped appreciably
both for spot and futures. The effect of this continued depression of cotton values is being forcibly felt in our market. The financial situation is not improved and buyers who latterly showed an inclination to operate, find every reason to hold off in the hope of still lower rates. In consequence, the quietness in both yarn and cloth
sections has become more pronounced.
Yarns are in very limited request and the turnover in cloth has been quite unimportant: few offers are in evidence to test prices, but these are if anything slightly weaker.
The situation in fact appears dull enough from the point of view of producers, but it should be recognized that the quieter trade remains for the time being the quicker we shall be in reaching a more sound general situation ripe for a renewal of activity.
Unsettled values and financial stringency have both tended in the same direction, that is to reduce purchasing. This indeed could hardly be on a smaller scale than it has been for such a considerable time and as a result outlets, which at present have the appearance of being over-stocked
so far as immediate needs are concerned, now have few lots to go forward and for some months at least shipments to them must be comparatively negligible. This will no doubt be a welcome respite to Merchants in such outlets, as it will give them time to realise on goods which have not gone into consumption as quickly as they anticipated, and they will be secure in the knowledge that practically no goods bought at the low rates recently, will be imported, owing to the fact that business has been entirely stagnant. Goods for the Near East are apparently being taken up better, as buyers have been able to take advantage of lots offered at low figures for prompt payment.

HONGKONG TRADE.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

FORTNIGHTLY REPORT.

Cotton Piece Goods and Fancy
Cotton Goods.—There are still no
outward signs of a revival of business.
Chinese dealers of old standing declare they have never experienced worse times. Apparently the only explanation for the present "Slump," is a complete lack of confidence on the part of buyers, all over the world.
Prices, at which dealers are willing to do business, are in most instances far below the actual Manchester relating cost.

Cotton Yarn.—The situation is practically unchanged. Demand is checked by lack of confidence in the interior. Prices have ruled irregular and about 1,000 bales changed first hands. Quotations are nominal as follows:—No. 10s $180/205; No.
12s $185/210; No. 16s $210/230;
No. 20s $215/230. Arrivals 1,000 bales. Sales 1,000 bales. Shipments nil. Unsold stock 13,000 bales. Bargains 12,000 bales.

Woolens.—The market is unchanged and there is little likelihood of any change until after the Chinese
New Year.

Raw Cotton.—No business has been transacted and values are nominal. Indian staple $30/32 and Chinese staple $31/38 per picul.

Metals.—Business has remained quiet during the last fortnight, and in spite of lower exchange prices show no signs of advancing locally. Sales of Tin plates, spot, are reported at $11.50 and Steel Bars at $6.50.

Flour Market Report.—Stocks
About 220,000 sacks. Quotations:
American Extra $4.80 per sack,
American Cur off $3.35 per sack,
American Straight $2.20 per sack,
Shanghai Flour 2nd $3.15 per sack.

Sugar.—Market weak.

Salt.—Stock 700 bags. Market strong.

SUICIDE.

With visiting Bath for medical treatment, Miss Annie Turner, 52,
of Rosslyn Villa, Parkham, Surrey, threw herself from a window and died
from her injuries.

At the inquest, when a verdict of Suicide while of Unsound Mind was returned, it was stated that Miss Turner's brother, died recently from heart disease and that a doctor had told her that she had the same complaint and would probably die in the same way.

This, it was said, depressed Miss Turner, and she asked her landlady for a sharp knife and where there was a "good" pool.

TEETHING WITHOUT TEARS.

A NEW LIGHT ON BABY-REARING.

It is a recognized fact that Babies—
and in fact all Children—need medicines
of their own, and that most baby-medicines do more harm in the long run than good. Also great mistakes are often made in measuring doses for tiny patients. Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian medicine for Children of all ages, meet every difficulty. They are guaranteed to be "absolutely harmless"
and free from opiates. They are so soft that they fall into powder at very slight pressure, forming an ideal dose for infants.

Baby's Own Tablets are pleasant to the taste, slightly laxative, comforting
and digestive—a specific for feverishness,
constipation, diarrhoea and worms.
At the time of teething they act like magic, giving painless sleep and easy teething.

Obtainable from chemists, also at 50
cents the vial, post free, from the Dr.
WILLIAMS' Medicine Co., 86 Birchmen Road, Shanghai.

The Hupp Motor Car Corporation began manufacturing operations in 1903. This long experience is embodied in the present Hupmobile and is one of the main elements of the car's unusual value.

OBITUARY.

MR. GEORGE IRELAND.

DEATH ON CHRISTMAS DAY.

Christmas Day was saddened for many by the death early that morning of Mr. George Ireland, manager of the China Light and Power Co. Ltd., at his home in Kowloon. The funeral, which took place at Happy Valley the same day, was largely attended in spite of the short notice given. Messrs. Donithorne and Grunsul were the chief mourners. There were numerous beautiful wreaths.

The late Mr. Ireland was born at Staveley, Westmoreland. He joined the Associated Portland Cement Co. Ltd. at Greenhithe, in 1900, and was with them until 1915 when he took up the management of the China Light and Power Co. in Kowloon. During the deceased's management, numerous improvements took place through his expert advice which was much appreciated. Two years ago he contracted serious symptoms of consumption, but appeared to benefit considerably from a protracted health trip to California. Shortly after his return he suffered another breakdown in health and took a trip to Yunnanfu which, however, did him no good, and after a long and trying illness he passed away about 7.30 on Christmas morning. Of a very quiet and unassuming disposition Mr. Ireland was greatly esteemed by all who came in contact with him. He belonged to Gravesend and was, we believe married but had no family. Mrs. Ireland was with her husband at the last and to her the deep sympathy of the community is extended.

MRS. MOWBRAY NORTHCOTE.

It was with the deepest regret that the many friends of Mrs. Mowbray Northcote, the well-known and popular secretary of the Hongkong Land Investment Co., learned of the death of his wife on December 27 after a very long illness. The deceased lady, who had lived a good number of years in Hongkong took to her bed some months ago, and although her condition improved from time to time, she was expected to recover soon. She took a turn for the worse on the night of the 26th and passed peacefully away in the small hours of yesterday morning. The funeral, which took place at Happy Valley the same day, was largely attended, and a wealth of beautiful wreaths was placed on the grave. The deepest sympathy will be felt for Mr. Northcote.

Among those present at the funeral were Sir Paul Chater, Dr. G. P. Jordan, Dr. C. Forsyth, Messrs H. Percy Smith, A. Forbes, W. A. Hannibal, D. W. Cameron, J. H. Seth, H. Seth, W. J. Wilkinson, W. R. Wilkinson, A. M. Stark, Hon. P. H. Holyoak, A. G. Coppin and her sorrowing husband, the household staff of servants and many of the Company's Contractors.

Wreaths were sent by "Mowbray," Sir Paul and Lady Chater, Dr. and Mrs. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Holyoak, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Cameron, Mr. W. Sinclair, Mr. H. Percy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Seth, Mr. C. S. Gubbay, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Coppin, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Stark, Dr. and Mrs. C. Forsyth, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hannibal, Mrs. and Miss Armstrong, Mrs. W. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, Mr. G. M. Dodwell, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Grimble, Mr. Harold Seth, The House Servants, Messrs. Sui Yuen and others.

CHRISTMAS TREE.

ROYAL ARTILLERY "AT HOME."

CHILDREN ENTERTAINED.

Col. Loring, C.R.A., and officers of the Royal Artillery were "At Home" to the families of the regiment and a children's Christmas Tree party given, on Thursday afternoon in the R. A. Theatre, Victoria Barracks.

It was an enjoyable occasion. At 4 o'clock tea was served; at 5 o'clock, a cinema show was given by the Wiltshire and at 6 o'clock an illuminated tree, loaded with sweets and gifts presided over by an amiable Santa Claus, was revealed to the delighted eyes of the children. The tree had been dressed by the ladies of the regiment, under the supervision of Mrs. Loring, who acted as assistant to Santa Claus in the distribution of the presents.

When it was all over, Santa Claus asked the children to thank Col. and Mrs. Loring, the officers and ladies of the regiment. They did. They

ITALIAN CIRCUS.

SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

SENSATIONAL FEATS.

Bostock's Royal Italian Circus, the appearance of which had been eagerly anticipated by old as well as young, opened at Ming Yuen Garden, North Point, on Saturday night, and proved to be well up to expectations. Those who attended the opening night, and the various performances given during the holidays, were well entertained. The show is commendably well organized, and moves with a precision and smoothness that speaks of excellent direction; and the acts are uniformly of a high standard.

There are numerous animal acts, as well as sensational feats of skill by team and individual performers. The animals are all trained to perfection, and their various clever feats were welcomed with generous applause. The clowns kept the audience in ripples of laughter. The performers on the trapeze and slack wire were all good, some of them especially performing amazing "stunts", with a nonchalance and ease that testified to thorough mastery of their art.

Special mention should be made of Mlle. Lorens and her graceful work on the lofty trapeze and rope; Maxime, and his marvellous recklessness on the slack wire; the flying act of the Arkos Trio; and the versatility of "Spuds" both in his tumbling, and in his humorous miscellany with his companion clown. The others also are entitled to high commendation. Each number on the programme is one of merit.

Two performances are given daily, at 5 p.m. and 9.15 p.m. At 4.30 p.m. and 8.45 p.m. a "Sensational Glide of Life" is given outdoors as a free attraction.

BLASTING OPERATIONS.

A COOLIE'S DEATH.

CONTRACTOR'S FOREMAN FINED.

A contractor's foreman was this morning brought before Magistrate Orme charged on remand with unlawfully carrying out blasting operations in Kowloon City during prohibited hours, and with criminal neglect which caused the death of a coolie.

Inspector Fox, who prosecuted, said that the accused was in charge of the quarry. He carried out blasting operations at 3 p.m. The important point the prosecution wished to raise was that the accused did not wait until all the coolies had taken cover before burning the fuse.

The Magistrate remarked that according to the evidence at the inquest, the coolies should have run down the hill. Instead, however, several of them took cover behind the rocks in the vicinity. He was of the opinion that at most the accused was guilty merely of a formal breach in that he did not see that all the men went down the hill.

The Inspector: That is so. There is no public road in the vicinity and the nearest house, excepting the matchless occupied by the workmen, was 5,000 yards away.

The Magistrate: Is there any particular offence you want to bring home to the accused?

The Inspector: No. I think he should be cautioned.

The Magistrate: Did you allow him to carry out the blasting? I mean, it would not be fair to punish him just because a death had occurred.

The Inspector: I did not give him permission, but he might have obtained it.

The Magistrate: There is no objection to blasting being carried out in the locality?

The Inspector: No particular objection, but he did not have a permit.

The Magistrate: If the blasting had been carried out with a permit and at the proper time the accident would have happened all the same. I don't think the public is affected much as to the hour of blasting in this quarry, but a rule is a rule and I will impose a fine of $25 on the accused.

also gave three good cheers and a "tiger" to show that they meant it.

The theatre was decorated with flags lent by the Commanding Officer of H.M.S. "Tamar". The illuminations of the tree were by the Royal Engineers under the direction of Capt. Brown, R.E., Mrs. Sanders and Lt. Bigg played the piano during the cinema show. Wheelchair Staff Sgt. Smith, Wheeler Sgt. Owen, and Sgt. Miller had charge of other arrangements for the entertainment.

YAUMATI SENSATION.

EUROPEAN POLICE SERGEANT SHOT DEAD.

ANOTHER WOUNDED.

REVOLVER BATTLE WITH DESPERATE ROBBERS.

In the course of a revolver battle between the police and an armed robber gang at Yaumati last night, Lance Sergeant R. C. Gardiner was shot dead and Lance Sergeant J. R. McWalter was wounded in the arm.

The details of the tragedy are as follows:—A couple of days ago the Yaumati police received information that an armed robbery had been planned to take place on Monday night at No. 315, Reclamation Street. Steps were immediately taken to frustrate it. At 8.30 p.m., Inspector Caygill, Sub-Inspector Ogg, Lance Sergeant Gardiner, McWalter and Ellis, with a posse of Chinese constables, proceeded to Reclamation Street and there took cover in positions opposite and on either side of house No. 315. The watchers had waited for nearly an hour when suddenly a revolver shot was heard and whistles were blown. Immediately afterwards, a Chinese was seen to leave No. 315 and run in the direction of the Praya. Inspector Caygill fired at the running man, but missed. This shot evidently surprised the robbers who had no suspicion that they were surrounded by police.

Three more men rushed out of the house, and firing recklessly, followed the first man. Leaving their hiding places, the police engaged the fugitives in a running fight in the course of which many shots were exchanged, but without effect, the robbers escaping unharmful. While others continued the chase, Inspector Caygill, accompanied by a few of his men, rushed the ground floor of house No. 315. Although they expected to be received with a volley by other robbers thought to be still in the house, they were surprised to find the place deserted except for Lance Sergeant Gardiner who was lying on the ground unconscious in a pool of blood, and Sergeant McWalter who was standing nearby nursing a flesh wound in the left arm. Lance Sergeant Gardiner was at once lifted on to a bed where an examination showed that he had been shot through the abdomen. First aid was immediately applied but he expired, without recovering consciousness, about a quarter of an hour after the fatal shot was fired. Sergeant McWalter's wound was dressed. In the meantime a revolver battle was being waged between the escaping robbers and the rest of the police at the far end of the street. Numerous shots were fired but without further casualty to the police. One of the robbers, however, was reported to have been wounded by District Watchman No. 3, but managed to get away. Another robber was captured through running into the arms of a constable as he turned into a side lane from Shanghai Street, where the large crowd of pedestrians, forced the police to cease fire. As the fugitives had already mingled with the throng and were lost to sight, the chase was abandoned, and the police party returned to Reclamation Street.

The captured man was taken to the station. A thorough search of the ground floor of No. 315, Reclamation Street was later made under the supervision of Mr. King, A.S.P., who was summoned from Hongkong. But nothing of moment was found. The premises are used by a firm of manufacturers of fire crackers. All the fuses deserted the place as soon as the trouble began. Later in the night detectives brought in several suspects who were detained pending enquiries.

The following official reports copied at the Central Police Station this morning speak for themselves:—An armed robbery was attempted at No. 315, Reclamation Street, Yaumati, at 9.30 p.m. on December 27. The police interfered. One man was arrested and three escaped. One is believed to be wounded.

Sent to the Kowloon mortuary the body of L/S A.I. R.C. Gardiner, shot through the abdomen in the attempted armed robbery at No. 315, Reclamation Street.

Sent to the Government Civil Hospital L/S A.I. R.C. McWalter, suffering from a bullet wound in the arm caused in the attempted armed robbery at No. 315, Reclamation Street.

The late Sergeant Gardiner who was a very young man, was stationed in Hongkong with the Manchester Regiment during the latter part of the war. He went home for demobilisation in 1919 and early this year joined the Hongkong Police Force, coming out here to take over his duties on March 28, of this year. He was unmarried but leaves a brother who is with the Asiatic Petroleum Company in Shanghai, and relatives at home for whom much sympathy will be felt.

The funeral will start from Observation Pier, opposite The Lok Lane, Wan-chai, at 5.15 this evening

FAR EASTERN CABLE NEWS.

JAPAN REFUSES TO HAND OVER ANFUTIES.

PERKING, Dec. 27.

The Japanese Legation publishes the official text of its reply to the Weichisowu, on December 24, in which the Japanese Government again declines to hand over the Anfuties, pointing out that precedents in support of such action are numerous in Spain, South America and other countries.

Yeh Kung-chao's visit to Mukden is regarded as evidence of the solidarity of the Chihli Party, though reports suggest that efforts are being made for the restoration of Tuan Chijui and the pardon of the Anfuties.

Passengers to Europe are strongly urged to determine the exact date of the Atlantic sailing prior to departure from the Orient. Traffic conditions on the Atlantic are so congested that in the fall of time the steamer

smoothly. No nation more earnestly desired peace and the opportunity for legitimate economic expansion than Japan. Her policy has always been directed towards maintaining friendly relations with China and the United States, while the Alliance with Great Britain was a source of satisfaction to the whole Japanese nation. Japan's hopes were fixed on a peaceful economic and social evolution of the Far Eastern peoples. Japan had no intention of setting the pace in the armaments race.

Her naval programme was a measure of defence natural to an island Empire.

Japan would be always pleased to join any discussions between the nations of the League on disarmament. Obviously,

such a discussion would depend on the inclusion of all the great nations in the League.

STRANDING OF THE "FAUSANG."

LONDON, December 25th.

In response to representations by the Imperial Merchant Service Guild, the Board of Trade has decided to restore the certificate of the late master of the steamship "Fausang," which had been suspended for one year by a Marine Court of Inquiry, held in Hongkong in June, in connection with the stranding of the vessel.

[The Indo-China S.N. steamer "Fausang,"

of which Captain F. G. Gill was master, stranded on the reef ground situated North

20 degrees East from Black Beacon.

Hainan Spit. The Marine Court of Inquiry held in Hongkong consisted of

Commander C. W. Beckwith, R.N.,

(superintendent magistrate and President of the Court), Lieut-Commander R. M.

Stoddard, R.N., H.M.S. "Triton," Captain

W. Dawson, C.P.O.S., Ltd., Captain W.

J. Barnes, R.N., "Sinking," and Captain

E. D. Blackburn, China Navigation Co.

The Court was of opinion that the standing of the ship was entirely due to the careless navigation of the master in electing to pass the Beacon at 2 1/2 cables distance, which the Court considered to be a dangerously close distance, and also in taking no steps to check this distance,

so that when the ship struck the reef,

according to the findings of the Court, was only 701 feet from the Beacon. The Court ordered the certificate of the master to be suspended for twelve months, but granted him a first mate's

certificate during that time.—Ed.]

Paul Dukes. The former died in a Bolshevik prison in February and the latter went to England two years ago. Professor Wilson has now been released. Another Englishman, named Sykes was arrested last year and condemned to be shot, but his sentence was commuted and it is now hoped that he will soon be repatriated.

LAMBERT'S XI v. BASA'S XI.

Originally arranged as a Married v Single match this holiday fixture, the match had to be reorganised at the last moment owing to the lack of married men. This, however, did not detract from the interest of the game, and a good time was spent. A century by F. G. Thompson and a large contribution by L. E. Lammert, gave his side an easy win.

This match, which was played at King's Park, was very exciting. The Kowloon team was too strong for their visitors. Batting first, they scored 163. In spite of this big handicap, Ng's team played very steady cricket and compiled 129 before the last man was out.

BOXING.

DEMPEY MAY MEET BECKETT IN ENGLAND.

Jim Driscoll (Retired Feather-Weight Champion of the World) writing in the News of the World of November 7, says—

My attention was called a day or so ago to a correction of the statement I made in last week's "News of the World" regarding the future engagements of Jimmy Wilde, but so far as I can see the only change is that, instead of Wilde meeting Pete Herman in America, he will do so in this country. I may say that the original information was based on what Mr. Ted Lewis gave out, but it now seems that the latter has changed his programme, and that he has consented to the match taking place in this country. There can only be one reason for this. Mr. Lewis stated previously that b- had been asked to state his terms for Wilde to oppose Herman at the International Sporting Club, New York, and, on doing so, he received a prompt acceptance. What, then, can the change of venue mean? It must mean that Mr. Reuben Welch, the much-talked-of promoter, has an agreement that binds Herman, and that Mr. Lewis was shrewd enough to see that it was Mr. Welch who mattered in this particular match.

The rest of Wilde's programme stands as I gave it. He will box Jack Sharkey in London also, though here again it is as yet uncertain who will have first claim upon the Londoner. After these two events will

HONGKONG'S CHRISTMAS.

HOW IT WAS SPENT.

MANY HAPPY CELEBRATIONS.

Hongkong awoke this morning, yawned and stretched itself, and—trifle heavily—settled down to work again after its three-days' Christmas holiday.

It had had a good Christmas—something to look back upon and recall with satisfaction. The weather was right, with plenty of sunshine, and cool enough for every out-door recreation; people responded amiably to the spirit of friendliness that pervades the Christmas season when there is peace in the land; and there were many diversions, both in the way of private and public entertainments, and in the attractions offered both by climate and natural advantages, to occupy one's vacation time. It did not detract from the festival, but in fact added to the picturesqueness of the occasion, that it was being celebrated in the midst of a community of strange ways and different beliefs; that while all Europeans were observing the birthday anniversary of their Messiah, around them the Chinese were methodically going about their daily tasks, as stolid and impassive as they have been for centuries. Christmas in a far country, among strange people, is especially interesting; and it always seems that there is no country farther, and no people more strange, viewed from the Western standpoint, than the Chinese.

The celebrations began on Friday, Christmas Eve, with a variety of functions. The little people quite properly were the first to have their innings. A number of children's parties were held, the largest being the one given by Mrs. Blair at the Peak Hotel, where a good-sized gathering of youngsters had a very wonderful afternoon. They were prettily entertained, in the way that kiddies like to be entertained, and all shared the treasures of a beautiful Christmas tree.

The grown-ups came in for their parties in the evening. At the various hotels there were any number of Christmas Eve dinners. Generally the hotels were appropriately decorated, their dining rooms being loaded down with flowers.

The Repulse Bay Hotel was the scene of the most brilliant of the entertainments that marked Christmas Eve, a special dinner dance being given. The beauty of the hotel and its setting is such that it needs no other embellishment, but on this occasion it was attractively decorated. A large number of guests attended and danced until a late hour.

On Christmas Day there were special services in the churches of the Colony. St. John's Cathedral was handsomely decorated with palms and white chrysanthemums, with here and there the crimson of the poinsettia adding colour to the scene. A large congregation attended, and H. E. the Governor was present. The service was simple and impressive. As the surpliced choir and clergy entered the church, the hymn "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" was heard. The Cathedral Chaplain, the Rev. H. Copley Moyle, conducted the services. The Assistant Chaplain, the Rev. Mr. Holman read the first lesson, the passage from Isaiah containing the words, "For unto us a child is born." The Right Rev. W. H. Norris, D.D., Bishop of North China, read the second lesson, the account of the Nativity. The choir then rendered the anthem, "Arise, shine, for thy light has come." The Right Rev. C. R. Duppuy, Bishop of Victoria, preached the sermon, from the text "Behold, I bring you glad tidings of great joy." He pointed out that no other birth in history had such consequences for humanity as the birth of Christ; that it was a turning point in history; and the best and most hopeful elements in civilized life to-day owed their origin to that birth. The Christmas festival, he said, was a festival of brotherhood, calling men to be one and telling them they were meant for union and fellowship.

At the Roman Catholic Churches masses were begun at midnight on Christmas Eve, and continued through the morning of Christmas Day.

In Kowloon there was a big Children's Fete at the Club de Recreio to mark the day. The decorations that had been put up for the garden fete in honour of the Governor of Macao were still in place, and the grounds were a wonderland of beauty. Each of the many children who attended received a Christmas gift, and consequently it was a very happy gathering of little folk. When the gift-giving had been concluded, dancing began to the music of the Wiltshire Band. This lasted until dinner time. Afterwards the dancing continued to the music of a piano, and lasted until midnight.

In the evening there was a big dinner dance at the Hongkong Hotel that brought out a crowd of prominent guests—so many that the big hotel never looked more attractive, and none of the many functions it has given was more of a success. The interior was a bewildering scene of colour. The arrangements were complete in every detail, and the evening thoroughly enjoyable in consequence. This was by all odds the crowning event of the day.

The most popular of the other entertainments of the day was Bostock's Royal Italian Circus, which opened at 9 p.m. at Ming Yuen Garden, North Point. This attracted large patronage, including as many children as could prevail on their parents to permit them to remain up late enough, and proved to be an exceedingly good exhibition.

On Sunday there were more special Christmas services at the Churches, in particular a song service in the evening at St. John's Cathedral that was a notable occasion. The Cathedral and auxiliary choirs rendered Christmas carols, including "Good King Wenceslas", "God Rest You", and "A Child is Born". In "Good King Wenceslas" the solos were sung by Mr. H. Freeborn and Jack Collett, the chorister, and was highly appreciated by the large congregation. Wely's Interlude "Pastorale" was played by Mr. Denman Fuller, the Cathedral Organist, with skill and understanding.

Yesterday, Boxing Day, was celebrated in the customary manner with a full programme of sports, and innumerable outings. There was plenty of good cricket, and a large charity football match, in aid of St. Dunstan's Home for Blind Sailors and Soldiers. On this and other days there was much golf, the weather being ideal. At Fanling especially, there were some interesting competitions, closely played. The results of the games at Fanling were as follows—

Mixed Foursomes.—Mrs. Moxon and Mr. A. M. D. Wallace.
Ladies' Bogey.—Miss Healing, 2 up.
Men's Medal.—Mr. R. P. Shaw, 77 nett.
Approaching and Putting.—Mr. A. B. Stewart, 8.
Clock Golf.—Mr. H. Hancock, 23.
Men's Drives.—Mr. J. L. Crockett, average 238.
Ladies' Drives.—Miss Healing, average 157.

At Government House an interesting Christmas Party for children was given by H. E. the Governor and Lady Stubbs, and in Happy Valley the Civil Service Cricket Club gave its annual entertainment to the children of its members.

At night there was another big dinner dance at Repulse Bay Hotel, which attracted a large number of guests who wished to bring the short holiday to a fitting close.

These were the chief events of the holidays. Of course there were innumerable private parties. Hundreds of people also took advantage of the opportunity to make trips to the nearby points of interest. The steamers to Macao and Canton were crowded. Others went on hunting trips in the New Territories, and still others indulged in their favourite pastime of tramping the hills of the island—to both of which the natural advantages of the Colony lend themselves so well. The little community at Tai Koo Dockyard had a Christmas of its own, with a big Christmas tree loaded with all sorts of seasonal gifts. The Cinema houses were crowded, both the Coronet and Hongkong theatres showing excellent programmes.

The Kowloon Dock Co. Directorate, according to The Rock, has just been strengthened by the addition of Sir Robert Ho Tung's name to the Board. Sir Robert is the largest individual shareholder of the Company. His faith in the shipbuilding and repairing industry in the Colony was not shaken even when the industry was at a very low ebb just before the war. Taking a long view of things and believing in the great future of the Colony, he supported, rather than otherwise, with his large fortune, local enterprises and industries. Sir Robert is, by the way, a Director of a number of leading public companies in Hongkong, such as the Indo-China S.N. Co., the Land Investment Co., the Hongkong Tramway Co., and several others.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

LONDON, December 22nd.
A highly interesting survey of the work of the League of Nations during the first eleven months of its existence was given by Mr. Balfour in the House of Commons. In the course of dealing with the stand-point of organization, the Rt. Hon. gentleman referred to the division of the League's expenditure between the members, which, he said, led to a great deal of trouble. The present system was admittedly not satisfactory. The chief difficulty happened to be the members of the British Empire, who were liable for forty per cent. of the League's expenditure. The Dominions' statement very properly spent a good deal of time discussing that.

Referring to the International Court of Justice, Mr. Balfour recalled that it was converted from a purely optional body to an obligatory one before it was created. He said that it was not doubtful that it would be universally approved, and when half the nations had done this the Court would come into existence.

It had been decided to defer proposals to amend the provisions of the League until it had existed for a year. The fact was that it was admittedly imperfect and must be changed after mature consideration. He mentioned China's repudiation of Greece as one of the four permanent members of the Council, which was the most important body of the League. It met monthly or bi-monthly and conducted to a very large extent the League's business.

Turning to the economic work of the League, Mr. Balfour described the scheme, thought out by an Amsterdam banker, for commercial credits, which the League had adopted. By this scheme the present formidable difficulty in the way of the international exchange of goods would be somewhat mitigated. It would allow countries requiring essential imports to have their national assets valued by the League with the object of enabling the former to raise mortgage bonds secured upon those assets for the payment of goods. It would be optional for any exporting country to accept the Bonds. Mr. Balfour thought it extremely probable that the scheme would prove useful. Sir Robert Horne had authorized him to say that the Government were seriously considering whether such a scheme might be supplemented by a form of insurance rendering the import and utility Bonds more certain.

Dealing with the League's political work, Mr. Balfour referred to disarmament, upon which he spoke disappointedly. He admitted that the League had been able to do very little in this direction. Nobody who remembered that there were nations of immense potential military importance outside the League would doubt that more could not have been done. He hoped the modest step taken would be carried further at the next Assembly. The question of traffic in arms was also an unsatisfactory position notwithstanding the importance which, however, had not been ratified.

Discussing the mandates, Mr. Balfour described the machinery provided for seeing the mandates properly carried out, which machinery, he thought, was fair and workable. He traversed the same ground that covered by Lord Robert Cecil in the interview already published. Mr. Balfour admitted that he did not know the present situation as regards Armenia owing to the obscurity which hung over recent events. A certain amount of success had already been attained in the direction of fighting typhus; absolute success was limited by lack of money. As regards the repatriation of prisoners, 150,000 out of 300,000 were actually sent home. He concluded by submitting that the catalogue of achievements represented a very creditable output, and declared, amid much applause, that he was more than convinced that a can never afford to drop the experiment. It seemed absolutely incredible to him that civilization would ever consent to retrace the greatest step it had yet taken. (Loud cheers.)

TRADE OF FRANCE.

PARIS, December 24th.
The official statistics of French foreign trade for the first 11 months of 1920 show that the situation is constantly improving. Exports exceeded by over 2,500,000,000 francs for the same period last year. Imports, during the same period, show an increase of some 290,000,000 francs. Another satisfactory fact is that food imports are decreasing steadily, while the exports of manufactured articles is increasing every day.

A former Cabinet Minister, M. Loucheur, speaking before the Chamber of Deputies, stated that the present economic crisis in the world is largely to be ascribed to exchange being in such an unsettled condition. He expressed the opinion that Great Britain and the United States would be well advised to give up their present policy of financial isolation and to grant loans to nations which are temporarily embarrassed. "All nations are now bound together by economic ties. He also stated that world peace would be completely restored only after Germany's disarmament. The Chamber by a large majority passed a vote of confidence in the Government.

BOLSHEVIST PROPAGANDA.

PARIS, December 24th.
The Chamber of Deputies has debated the Government's attitude towards Bolshevist propaganda, which, some deputies declared, is widespread in France. The Premier, in winding up the debate, said that it was the Government's desire to pursue the work of national reconstruction in peace and they would defend France against the propaganda of social dissolution. The Chamber passed a vote of confidence in the Government by 305 votes to 230.

M. LEFEVRE'S RESIGNATION.

PARIS, December 24th.
In the course of a debate in the Chamber of Deputies on foreign policy, the ex-War Minister, M. Lefevre, explained that his resignation was mainly due to the Finance Ministry's demand for the cutting down of the army estimates with which he did not agree. He asserted that Germany was trying to reconstitute her armaments, as was shown by the fact that she still possessed tens of thousands of machine-guns, millions of rifles and a large number of field-guns.

Germany was also concealing 1,100 gun breeches in secret depots, while not a single model had been discovered of two latest machine-guns, one of which was capable of firing 1,500 shots a minute against aircraft. The other was intended for firing on the trenches from aircraft. The ex-minister besought the Government to come to an understanding with the Allies for the establishment of a permanent control over Germany's armaments and to revise the Treaty of Versailles on the point. He asked for the maintenance of military forces which were indispensable if the barricade between Germany and the Allies was to be kept up.

Diplomatic circles are disposed to regard M. Lefevre's speech as Germany's capacity for mischief as too alarmist, though they agree that it certainly has some solid basis. This is borne out by the knowledge possessed by the chief Entente Powers of the present existence of a composite and well-equipped German force. A Bavaria described as the Citizen Guard. Representations hitherto made in this connection by the Allied Mission have not evoked a satisfactory reply, the contention being that the troops are necessary owing to local conditions.

RIOTING AT BROOME.

PERTH, Western Australia, December 24th.
Special constables are controlling Broome. So far 20 Japanese have been arrested in connection with the riots between the Japanese and Malays.

The warship Groenland has been ordered to Broome, presumably as a precaution against further Japo-Malayan troubles. [Broome is a small sea port on the barren north-west coast of Australia. It has a meat works, but is chiefly supported as the base of pearl fishers in the seas to the north of Australia.]

THE KING'S SPEECH.

LONDON, December 24th.
The King's speech on the prorogation of Parliament, referring to foreign relations, says the situation in Greece will require the earnest attention of my Government, who, in conjunction with the Allies, will endeavor to reach a solution compatible with their joint responsibilities.

His Majesty trusts that trade will shortly recommence with Russia, and that this will lead to an era of peace. It is most important, however, that Poland and her neighbours compose their political differences and devote their undivided energies to producing internal stability and economic reconstruction.

Referring to the acceptance of mandates for Mesopotamia, Palestine, German South-West Africa and the German Eastern colonies, His Majesty says: "It will be the high task of all my Governments to superintend and assist the development of these countries, according to their varying degrees of advancement, for the benefit of their inhabitants and the great welfare of mankind."

Referring to the League of Nations, His Majesty earnestly hopes that the spirit of harmony and goodwill between nations that was manifested at the Assembly is an augury of the value of the League as a force for conciliation and peace throughout the world.

Referring to the return of the Prince of Wales from Australia and the West Indies, His Majesty expresses the liveliest gratification at the enthusiastic affection with which His Royal Highness was everywhere received. He is confident that the Prince has done much to strengthen the mutual sympathy and trust cementing the Empire.

As regards the expenditure arising from the war, His Majesty says that the difficulties common to the whole world have nowhere been met so successfully as in Great Britain.

His Majesty, referring to Ireland, hopes that the new Government of Ireland Act, which is the fruit of over thirty years' ceaseless controversy, will finally bring unity and friendship between all the peoples of the United Kingdom.

The Government are carefully and anxiously considering the question of naval strength as affected by the latest developments of naval warfare. The King is glad to believe that the difficulties which beset the people in wartime, especially in industrial affairs, are giving place to a better general understanding of the problems of industry and to better relations between employers and employed. The darkest cloud on the horizon is the growing unemployment, which springs less from internal causes than from the contraction of export trade, due to the poverty of other nations and their inability to secure credits for the purpose of placing orders in Great Britain. These conditions equally affect all nations. His Majesty's ministers will continue to give their unremitting attention with a view to mitigating the hardships of unemployment. As one of the direct causes of the prevailing depression His Majesty hopes that ex-service men, and especially the disabled, would have been absorbed into civil employment has been disappointed. The Government has not spared any efforts to secure the men's resettlement, but it has become more than ever necessary that their efforts should be supplemented by the active aid and co-operation of the people.

PARLIAMENT'S RECORD.

LONDON, December 24th.
Parliament has been prorogued to February 15th.

The House of Commons achieved a session record by sitting from 2 o'clock on December 22nd till midnight the next day, with only a brief interval for lunch.

The Opposition strenuously opposed the Government rushing seven pages of the Lords' amendments to the Agricultural Bill, and challenged divisions, declaring that the Government was determined to the House of Commons. The Bill, which had been passed by the Commons, was nearly midnight, when compromise resulted in an agreement.

This lasted several months. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using it I found a change.
